
SCUBA DOGS
SERVICE AGREEMENT WITH OUR CLIENTS

Our Mission:

- To be “diver’s best friend” providing excellence in education, equipments and scuba diving experiences.

On behalf of Scuba Dogs:

- Provide a complete, professional training within one (1) full year of the course enrollment date.
- Provide scuba gear (bcd, regulator and tanks) for all dives required by the training.
- Provide classroom facilities, pool and study area for the course.
- Provide a detailed calendar to confirm date, time and place of training sessions with clients.
- Provide for sale the necessary course equipment and educational materials required for the course.
- Provide the PADI certification upon completion of all course requirements.
- Provide services, courses and activities of excellence for the enjoyment of our clientele.

On behalf of our Clients:

- Comply with all theory, confined water and open water training course requirements within one (1) calendar year of the enrollment date.
- Call to confirm appropriate weather conditions for training sessions.
- Acquire the required scuba equipment (basic gear and any required instruments) before the first training sessions in water.
- Cancel 24 hrs. in advance by calling Scuba Dogs or your Instructor if you cannot assist one of the classes.
- In such case, make up for the class independently or with the following group.
- Pick-up the rental scuba equipment in Scuba Dogs the day before diving in open water.
- After the dives, return the rental equipment clean and in the same conditions as it was provided.
- Allow use of photographs for the Scuba Dogs’ website and/or promotional purposes.
- In case of failing an exam, the reposition will have a $25 service charge.
- Pick-up, fill out and send the PADI certification form upon completion of the course.

